

FMG Inc., is a full service consulting engineering firm in Rapid City, SD with a history of over 100 years. We provide a progressive work environment with great opportunity for advancement in a dynamic business framework.

Our current job openings include the following positions:

Land Surveyor

Survey position for experienced individual in boundary and topographical surveys. Experience with modern GPS technology and integration to AutoCAD and ARC/GIS platforms. LSIT or persons interested in technological growth and development to professional registrations is desirable. Position involves challenging field work and diverse opportunities in a professional consulting engineering firm. Full time, competitive wages, full benefits.